

Innovative Flood Control Using a Smart City Mobile Application in Nakhon Si Thammarat City Municipality, Thailand

City Data

- Located in Southern Thailand
- Area : 22.56 km²
- Population of 98,264
- Center of Education : over 30,000 students
- Center of Cultural Tourism : 4 million visitors per year

Problem Statement: Flooding in the City

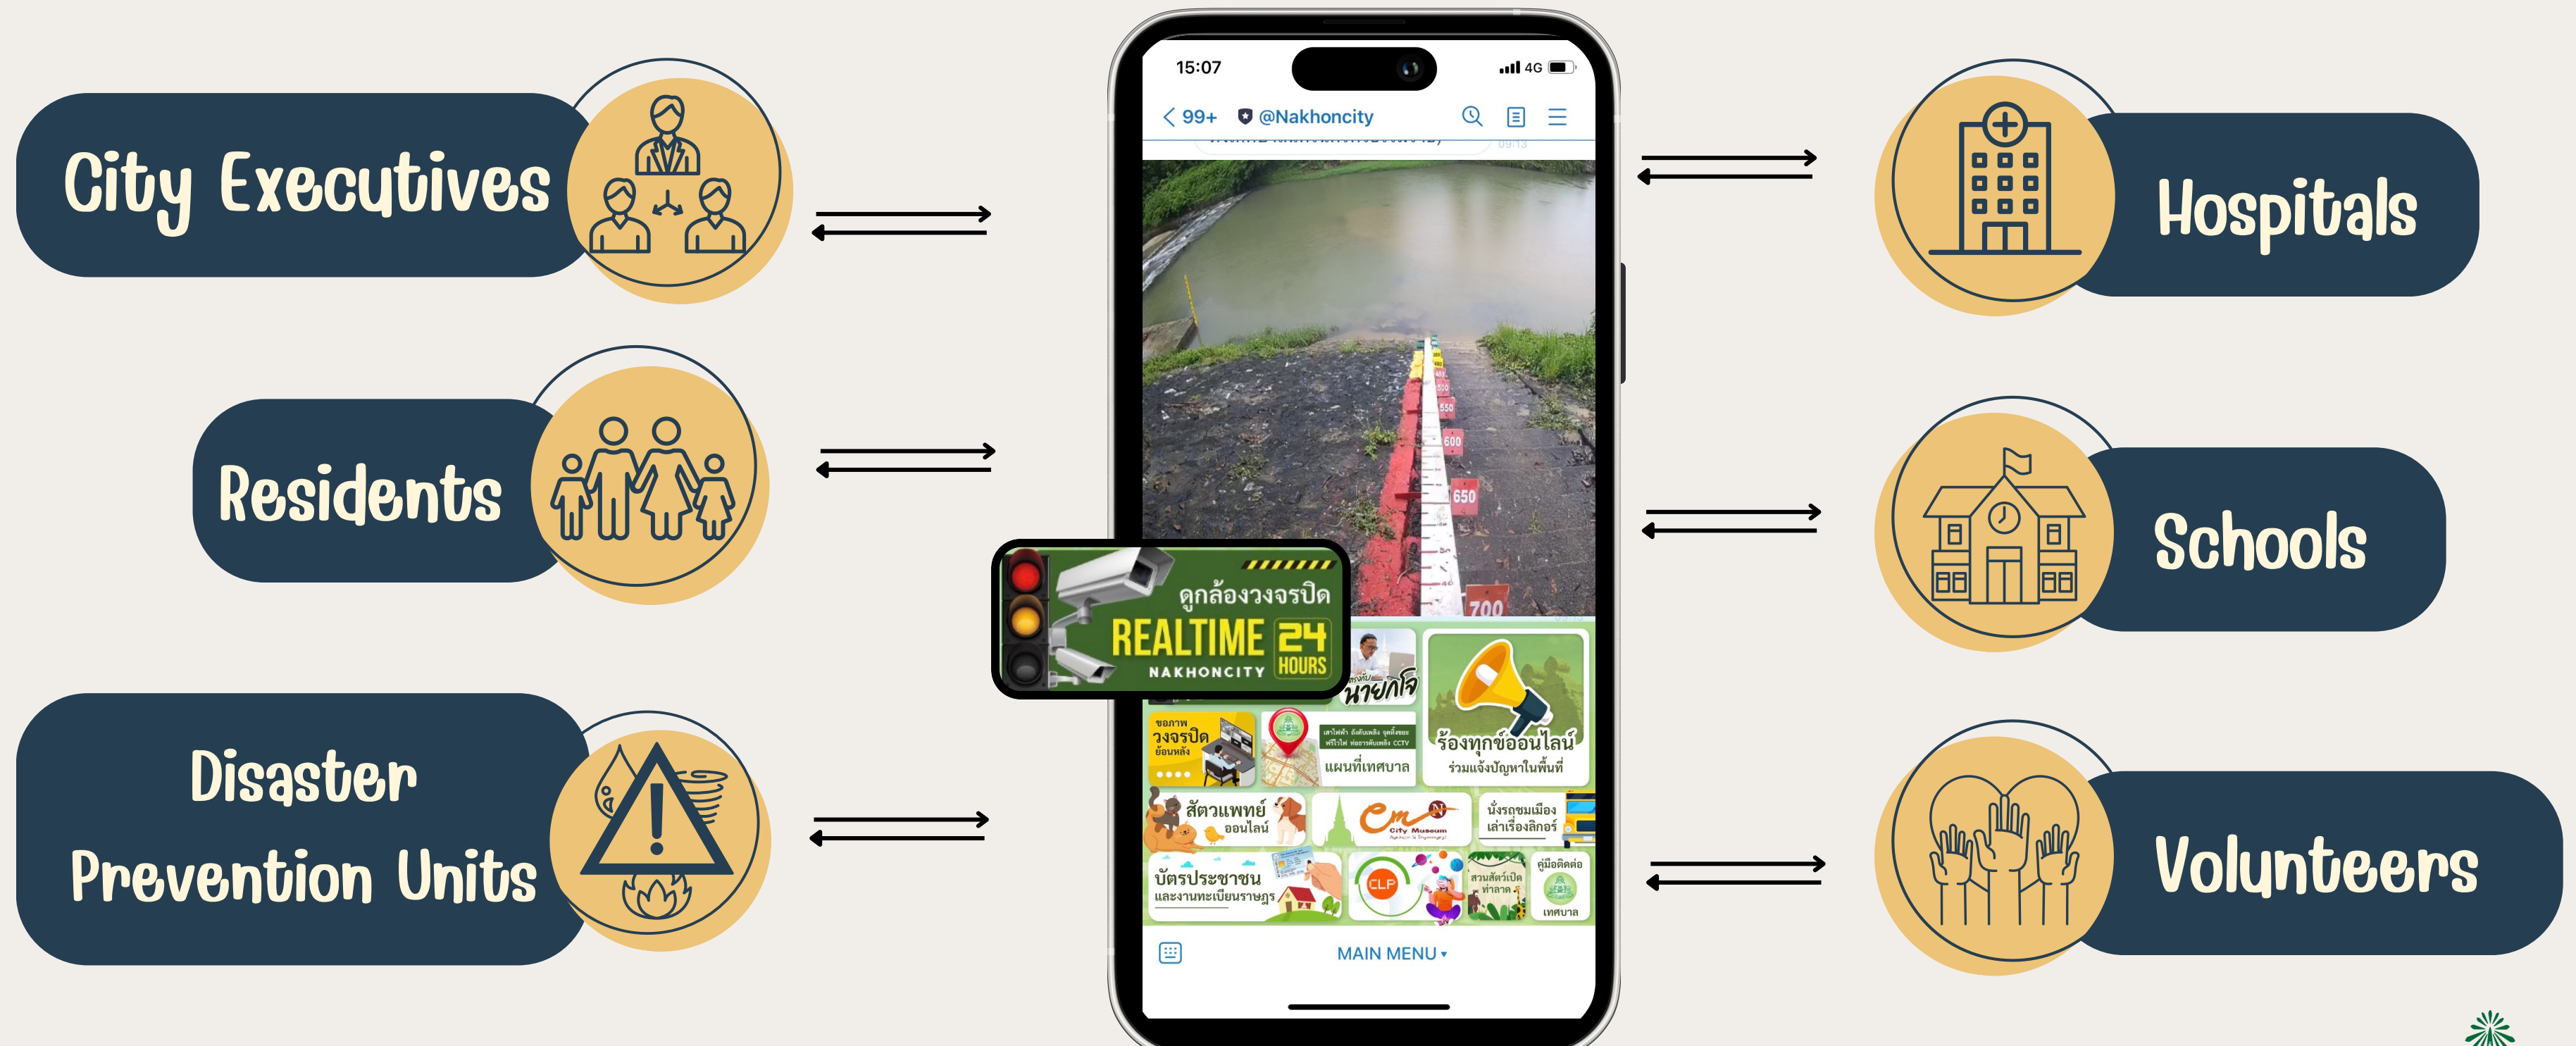

CCTV locations with real-time public access to provide Efficient Early Disaster Warning

A Smart City Mobile Application

emphasizing Citizen Empowerment with Digital Equity

People Collaboration via the Smart City Mobile Application

The City has eradicated flooding damages in the last 3 years after the Innovative Flood Control Project Implementation

Before

(Year 2020)

After

(Year 2021,2022,2023)

The substantial reduction in “flood related expenses”

The municipality

0.5 million USD
from flood relief packages

The federal government

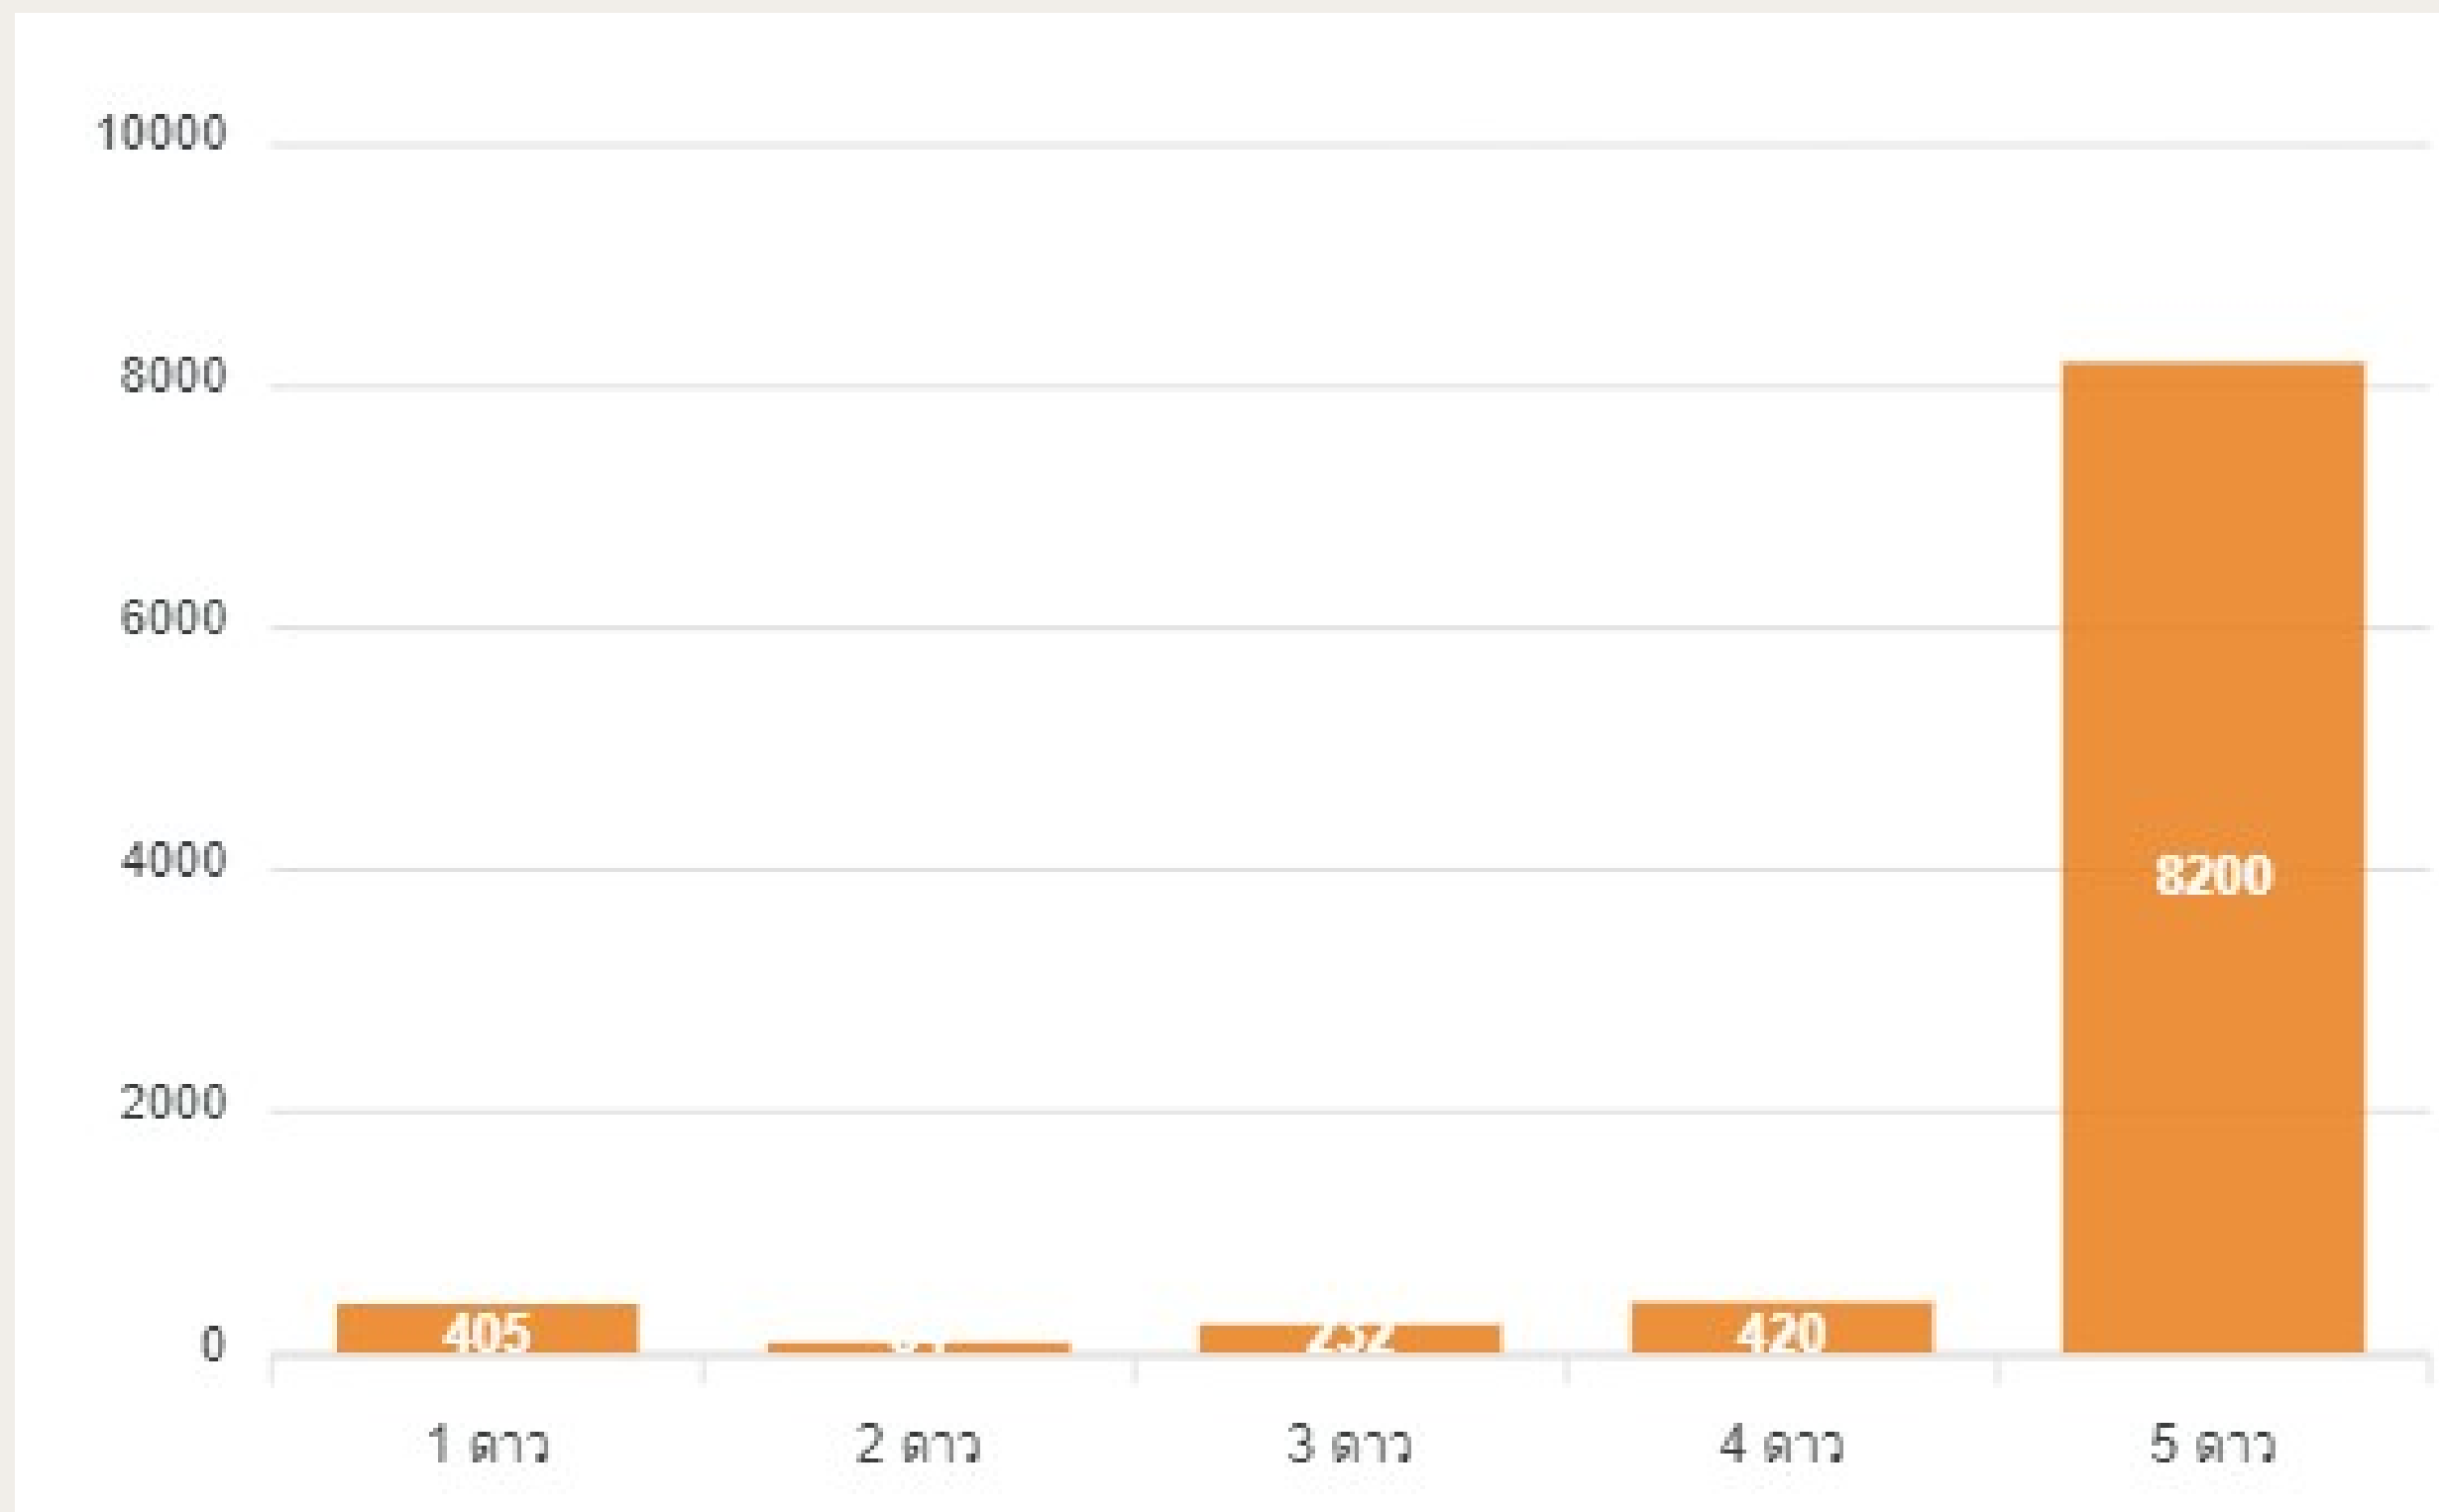

7 million USD
from flooding compensation
(5,000 Baht per household)

Satisfaction Rate

from residents via mobile application

AWARDS

NATIONAL LEVEL

Ministry of Digital Economy and Society

“Smart - Living”
Smart City Solutions Award

INTERNATIONAL LEVEL

International Climate Development Institute

“The Best Urban Initiatives”

THANK

YOU

